

Geotechnical Engineer

RESPONSIBILITIES

Directs and executes geotechnical project assignments including manage, develop and perform geotechnical investigations, collect and analyze data, visit project construction sites, prepare reports and manage quality lab services.

Ensures that commitments to customers are met.

Assists business development planning, networking, proposals and customer presentations.

Provides technical expertise regarding geotechnical issues and solutions.

Utilizes her/his understanding of the geotextile market with emphasis in Woven and Nonwoven textiles applicable to civil and structural engineering in the Geosynthetics industry.

Actively participates in professional and technical organizations.

REQUIREMENTS

BS or MS (preferred) degree in Civil or Geotechnical Engineering

5+ years geotechnical experience (preferred)

Registered/licensed Professional Engineer (P.E.)

Valid drivers license

Proven project management skills and planning experience is necessary along with overall technical aptitude.

Candidate must be highly organized, professional and articulate, with emphasis on problem solving and issue resolution.

Excellent technical writing skills

Excellent telephone etiquette

Knowledge of MS Office Suite and Oracle suggested.

English / Spanish communication proficiency (preferred)